

April 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Tempe Stake,

As we prepare for general conference on April 5–6, we have a sacred opportunity to hear the voice of the Lord through His chosen prophet and apostles. In a world filled with distractions and shifting values, the guidance of living prophets is more vital than ever. President Russell M. Nelson has repeatedly invited us to strengthen our testimony of Jesus Christ and to seek personal revelation. As we listen with open hearts and a willingness to act, we will receive direction tailored to our individual and family needs.

Above all, general conference is a time to refocus on our Savior, Jesus Christ. Every message given will, in some way, point us to Him—His love, His Atonement, and His power to heal and strengthen us. As we approach this sacred weekend, let us prepare spiritually by praying for understanding, studying the words of past conferences, and removing distractions that might keep us from truly hearing and applying the Lord’s counsel.

We encourage every family and individual in the Tempe Stake to make this conference a priority. Gather with loved ones, take notes, and discuss what the Spirit teaches you. As we follow the prophet’s counsel and center our lives on Christ, we will find peace, clarity, and the strength to face whatever lies ahead. May we all come ready to listen, learn, and act on the words the Lord has prepared for us.

*With love and gratitude,
Tempe Stake Presidency*
